

Designated Person in the ISM Code

Designated Person in the ISM Code course

According to the ISM code, the company should designate a person for Monitoring operation and arrangement adequate resource.

And the company should provide training course covered the guidance of MSC-MEPC .7/Circ.6 and also should provide training record.

This course is based on these requirements and provide necessary knowledge.

Featured Contents:

- Overview of qualification and training requirements for DP
- Knowledge and understanding of the ISM Code
- Mandatory rules, regulations, applicable codes, guideline and standard as appropriate.
- Assessment techniques of examining, evaluating and reporting
- Technical or operation aspects of safety management.
- Appropriate knowledge of shipping and shipboard operation .
- Effective communication.
- Case studies (group work)

Duration: Two days

Who Should Attend?

Designated Persons, QM managers for ship owners, management companies, ship officers and superintendents etc. (more than 2 years experience)